Press Release

CoSoSys Enters the North American Market

Endpoint Security and DLP Solutions Now Available via new US Based Office

Bucharest/San Jose, February 7th, 2008 – CoSoSys, the leading developer of enterprise Endpoint Security and Policy Management solutions for USB devices, announced today the opening of its office in the United States. Leveraging its strong presence in Asia and Europe, CoSoSys is now uniquely positioned to launch its award winning, cutting edge Endpoint Security and Data Loss Prevention (DLP) solutions to customers in the Americas.

"This is an exciting time in the evolution of CoSoSys. We look forward to delivering high-end Security and Policy Management solutions to our enterprise customers, thus helping them secure data and prevent data loss on USB devices," said Roman Foeckl, Managing Director of CoSoSys. "Also we are committed to developing and delivering world-class enterprise business applications with potential Resellers and Distribution partners who are leaders in their field and who are willing to invest in a successful collaboration targeting mutual future growth."

Aiming to introduce next generation endpoint security, data loss prevention and portable device management solutions to the US market, the CoSoSys Security office will host operations for sales, customer service, technical support and management, as well as working closely with strategic partners. The new office located in Silicon Valley has opened its doors on February 1st, 2008 and will be directed by a team of seasoned professionals with comprehensive expertise in the technology and security fields.
